

People cannot lock you out of your destiny. God is your doorkeeper - not your employer, not your banker, not your neighbour, not your critics, not your enemies. They may shut a door, but God can take you right through it. He can make things happen that don't make sense. He doesn't have to open it. He may not do it a traditional way. God can take you around what is blocking you. He can take you over someone who is trying to stop you. He can move someone out of the way who is holding you back. What God has pre-ordained and destined for your life will override anyone or anything trying to stop you.

Just keep honouring God, being your best, and He will get you to where you need to be. Trust His perfect timing. Don't be impatient because a door hasn't opened yet. God knows what He is doing. Stay in peace; your time is coming. Closed doors cannot keep you from your purpose.

Psalm 18:29 "For by You I can run through a troop, and by my God I can leap over a wall."
