

God says that He is looking for passionate believers, people who are full of praise, people who seek Him with all their heart (soul and spirit), not half or quarter. He is talking about people who worship Him in spirit and truth, who are expecting to find Him and His favour. You cannot be indifferent, lethargic, and passive in seeking Him, or in reaching your potential. You need to be on fire for God!

Don't let what didn't work out, the disappointments, or the bad breaks cause you to become half-hearted in your praise, half-hearted in your relationship / marriage, or half-hearted at work. That is why you need to stir up your heart. You are not going to wake up every morning excited about seeking God and reading His Word, or enthusiastic about your dreams. You need to do as David did, and say: "This is the day that the Lord has made. I will rejoice and be glad in it. With my whole heart I will seek You." If you keep seeking Him like this, you will find Him at levels you never dreamed possible.

Jeremiah 29:13 "You will seek Me and find Me when you seek Me with all your heart."
