

The Israelites were in slavery for hundreds of years in Egypt. They were mistreated and taken advantage of, but God supernaturally brought them out. As they were leaving, the Egyptians, the people who had oppressed them for all those years gave them gold, silver, and clothing. They didn't leave looking like what they had been through as slaves, and instead were loaded down with gifts. Remarkably, today's Scripture verse says: "there were no sick or feeble ones among them", yet they hadn't had pharmacies or hospitals. Miraculously, through the forty years of the wilderness wanderings, their clothes and shoes didn't wear out. Nobody could tell they had been enslaved. Why? Because when God restores, there is no sign of what you have been through.

You may have been a slave to addictions, to depression, to fear, to lack. It has been in your family line for generations, but your days of captivity have come to an end. Freedom is here. God is going to restore you back to where nobody will ever know you were ever enslaved.

Psalm 105:37 "...and brought His people safely out from Egypt, loaded with silver and gold; there were no sick and feeble folk among them then."
