

The Bible is in effect a very long love letter from God to us. Take the words of the psalmist: "The entrance of Your words gives light; it gives understanding to the simple." When children are born, they are "simple", or naïve, about life. Every parent's goal is that their children transition from "simple" to "wise" through years of teaching by words and examples. The apostle Paul expands on this idea in 2 Timothy 3:14-17 where he says the "Scriptures...are able to make you wise for salvation." But it is broader than just salvation. He says the Bible is for doctrine, reproof, correction, and training in righteousness.

Everything a Godly parent wants for their child, God wants for us as His sons and daughters. The Bible is His love letter to us, a letter to be treasured, and whenever we pray, it is a letter we in turn send to Him.

Psalm 119:130 "The entrance of Your words gives light; it gives understanding to the simple."
