

Today's Scripture verse makes it clear that God's plan for you does not end in defeat, in mediocrity, in addictions, or in injustice. Your story ends in triumph. You are not going to understand everything that happens, but you can be confident that God sees the end from the beginning. Sometimes He has to lead you backward in order to take you forward. He has to dig down deep, so He can get you prepared for how high He is taking you. He has to prune you, so you can bloom.

If you stay in faith, you are going to see how it all works out for your good. If there are things that are holding you back, things that are out of place, don't get discouraged. Stay in peace, knowing that no obstacle that stands in your way can stop God's plan for your life. God is saying: "You are right on schedule to triumph. Your story is not finished. I am still working on you. What I started I am going to bring to completion."

2 Corinthians 2:14 "Now thanks be to God who always leads us in triumph in Christ, and through us diffuses the fragrance of His knowledge in every place."
