

In Acts 3, Peter spoke a word of faith to a crippled beggar, and he was instantly healed. When that man woke up that morning, his expectancy was to receive a few coins for his survival. He didn't realize he was just one touch of God's favour away from having his whole life changed. When people realized what had happened, they were absolutely astonished, and many of them came to faith in Christ as a result.

God has things in your future that are going to leave you amazed and the people around you astounded. You weren't created to live in dysfunction, with addictions, and to be constantly struggling. That may be how it has been in the past, but that is not in your future. God is about to do new things in your life. He is going to break bondages that have held you back. He is going to increase you to where you have more than enough. That sickness is not permanent. Healing is coming. Wholeness is on the way. Victory is in your future.

Acts 3: 9-10 "All the people saw him walking and heard him praising God. When they realized he was the lame beggar they had seen so often at the Beautiful Gate, they were absolutely astounded!"
