

A life that is founded upon the Gospel of Jesus Christ is unshakeable. When you build your life upon the Gospel, you are building on a strong foundation that will give you stability and the power of God for lasting breakthroughs. (Romans 1:16)

You may be going through an extremely difficult season right now. Remain encouraged, and say by faith: "I am too blessed to be stressed." Invite our Lord Jesus into your situation. Involve Him in your area of need. Whether it is a healing, provision, or relationship breakthrough that you need, see and believe that the Lord is with you. Don't put your trust in your own understanding. Instead, lean wholly on the one Who is more interested in your success than you are. The book of Proverbs tells us: "The name of the Lord is a strong tower; the righteous run to it and are safe." (Proverbs 18:10) Run to Him and cast all your cares upon Him, for He cares for you.

Meditate on the last line of today's Scripture verse. In the new covenant of grace, your righteousness is from the Lord Jesus Himself. The more you understand your righteousness in Christ, the more you will experience His promise mentioned in today's Scripture verse. The opposite also holds true. When God's people are not established in their righteous identity in Christ, they become susceptible to the weapons of the enemy. Weapons such as sickness, lack, guilt, condemnation, fear, depression, and all kinds of disorders and addictions. God's Word proclaims that none of these weapons, even if they have already been formed, shall prevail against you. Moreover, every unfounded accusation, every malicious lie, and every false allegation you shall condemn. The enemy doesn't have a hold over your life - God does, and He holds it together!

Isaiah 54:17 ""No weapon formed against you shall prosper, and every tongue which rises against you in judgement you shall condemn. This is the heritage of the servants of the LORD, and their righteousness is from Me", says the LORD."
