

If you fill your mind with the right thoughts, there won't be any room for the wrong thoughts. When you go around constantly thinking: "I'm strong. I'm healthy. I'm blessed. I have the favour of God", then when the enemy sends negative thoughts your way, there will be a "No Vacancy" sign. They won't be able to get in.

You need to take inventory of what is occupying the 'rooms' of your life. If you give fear a room, faith gets left outside. There isn't room for both. If you give "I cannot" a room, then "I can" is left outside. If you give lack, barely get by, "I'll never make it" a room, then increase, promotion, and abundance are left outside. So stop renting out space in your mind to your problems and self-pity. Tell those negative thoughts: "You have occupied my rooms long enough. I have a new resident coming in. My new resident is faith, joy, peace, healing, and victory." Let what God says about you have a permanent home.

Colossians 3:16 "Let the message of Christ dwell among you richly as you teach and admonish one another with all wisdom through psalms, hymns, and songs from the Spirit, singing to God with gratitude in your hearts."
