

Do you know how many people have never been told “You are a winner”? There are most likely people in your life right now, maybe your own family members, who need your approval. They need you to speak blessing and encouragement over their lives. You don’t know what it will mean when you let them know that you are proud of them, and you think they will do great things. Everyone needs to be valued, appreciated, and encouraged. If you talk with successful people, they will tell you somebody spoke faith into them when they didn’t think they could do something.

What kind of seeds are you planting in others? Are you believing in anyone? Are you taking an interest to see how you can make someone’s life better? Listen to their hopes and dreams. Find out what God has put in their hearts. Let them know you are behind them. Give them your approval. Encourage them, lift them when they have fallen, celebrate with them when they succeed, pray for them when they are struggling, and urge them forward. Be a people-builder.

Philemon 1:7 “Your love has given me great joy and encouragement, because you, brother, have refreshed the hearts of the Lord's people.”
