

There is nothing more powerful than saying what God has spoken about you. When you have God's promises coming out of your mouth, you cannot be defeated. Even when Jesus was tempted by Satan in the wilderness, He said: "It is written." With each temptation, He went back to the Scripture and quoted what God said. When you are experiencing difficult times, don't just say what you feel, what you think, or what you need. Say what God says about your situation.

Say with His authority: "I am blessed. I am prosperous. I am redeemed. I am healthy. I am a masterpiece. I have the mind of Christ. I have peace that passes all understanding. I am more than a conqueror, more than an overcomer, through Christ. My latter days will be better than my former days." When you go around with His thoughts playing in your mind all day, you activate the power that will overcome obstacles that look insurmountable. When you agree with what God says, He will open doors you cannot open, and you will defeat much bigger enemies.

Isaiah 55:11 "So shall My word be that goes forth from My mouth; it shall not return to Me void, but it shall accomplish what I please, and it shall prosper in the thing for which I sent it."
