

David showed us that sometimes all you need to defeat the enemy is a small stone. The same is true of praise; sometimes all you need is your praise. Praise is a weapon. Throughout Scripture, you see how praise breaks chains, praise confuses the enemy, and praise makes you powerful. When you have praise coming out of your mouth, you are unstoppable. The enemy cannot keep a praiser down. Just think of Paul and Silas in Acts 16. As they sang praises at midnight, prison doors flung open and shackles fell off.

Your praise may not seem like much, but when you praise, angels go to work on your behalf. When you praise, the Creator of the Universe begins to change things in your favour. Most of the battles we fight are not physical; they are spiritual. Praise is a powerful weapon. When you praise in the time of trouble, it is even more effective, because the enemy expects you to be negative and complaining. Praise will cause you to defeat giants in your life.

Psalm 149:6 "Let the high praises of God be in their mouths..."
