

In today's Scripture verse, the Greek word used for "time" is not "chronos", which means ordinary time - minutes, hours, days etc. The word used is "kairos", which means an opportune moment, a passing instant where an opening appears. It has to do with an appointed time, a season of favour.

God has already ordained these kairos moments when you come into opportunities that seem over your head. You will be tempted to shrink back, but God wouldn't have put you there if you couldn't do it. It is a season of favour. Suddenly, you know you can overcome an addiction, you know you can beat that depression, you know lack and struggle are not your destiny. You feel faith rising. You have stepped into a kairos moment - a special time that God has strategically designed for you to come up higher. That is why His favour is on you in a new way. If you step into it, doors are going to open that you could not open yourself. Get ready for some kairos moments that will thrust you ahead.

2 Corinthians 6:2 "...I tell you, now is the time of God's favor, now is the day of salvation."
