

God has a plan for your life, but He doesn't show you all the details. If He showed you what He has in store, where He is taking you, it would excite and amaze you. But if you saw what it is going to take to get you there - the 'giants' and 'Pharaohs' you will face, the lonely nights, the betrayals, the closed doors etc. - you would think: "I will rather just stay where I am." God doesn't show us the full details, because He knows we would talk ourselves out of it. So if you cannot understand how something is ever going to work out, and you start getting worried and fearful, that is a sign God doesn't want you to know. You need to be comfortable not knowing.

When you say: "God, I don't see a way or have the answer for how this situation can work out, but I trust You", that attitude of faith is what allows God to do great things. Remember, He had the solution before you even had the problem. Pass the test and simply trust Him.

Jeremiah 29:11 ""For I know the plans I have for you", declares the LORD, "plans to prosper you and not to harm you, plans to give you hope and a future.""
