

You may have struggled in an area for a long time, but don't have a limited mindset. You need to give God permission to increase you. It starts in your thinking. If you grew up in lack, not having enough, surrounded by mediocrity, don't let that poverty spirit get in you or stay in you. That is not who you are. You are the one to break the curse and set a new standard.

God is about to loose resources, promotion, ideas, and opportunities for you. You have seeds of greatness in you. You are not limited by how you were raised, by your family, or by what you didn't get. You are not a slave to lack, depression, or fear. Satan, the oppressor, has been defeated. Your days of struggle, your days of sickness, and your days of loneliness are coming to an end. God is about to do a new thing in your life. He is going to break bondages that have held you back. Have a vision for increase. See yourself as a child of God rising ever higher.

Habakkuk 2:3 "But these things I plan won't happen right away. Slowly, steadily, surely, the time approaches when the vision will be fulfilled. If it seems slow, do not despair, for these things will surely come to pass. Just be patient! They will not be overdue a single day!"
