

We all have hopes and dreams that God has put in our heart, and goals we would like to accomplish, but too often we get discouraged by the equipping process. It is taking longer than we thought, we have had setbacks, somebody did us wrong etc. But if you keep the right attitude, every struggle, every disappointment, and every delay is depositing something in you. It is making you stronger, developing your character, and equipping you for what God wants you to do.

God knows what is in your future, and He knows what it is going to take to keep you there. You may not understand why you are in a lonely season, a frustrated season, a stagnant season, but everything you go through is to mature you to do His will. God wouldn't have allowed it if it wasn't a part of the process. Without it, you couldn't give birth to what He put in you. If you keep passing the test, doing the right thing, giving, serving, and loving, your time is coming. What God promised you will come to pass.

Hebrews 13:21 "...may He equip you with all you need for doing His will. May He produce in you, through the power of Jesus Christ, every good thing that is pleasing to Him."
