

When God brought the Israelites out of slavery, God showed them their destination, the Promised Land. But in the middle God didn't say: "I gave you the promise, and now you are on your own." No, all along the way, God supernaturally provided them with blessings - parting the Red Sea, provisions in the desert, and protection from enemy nations. He was showing them and us: "I am not just the God of the start and the finish. I am the God of the middle, who will bring you through the adversity."

When you are in the middle, God has given you the promise, and you know the destination, but you are en route. You are in the process of raising your child, believing for your healing, or running that business. Along the way, you will face situations that look impossible - the odds are against you, there is strong opposition, the medical report says you are not going to get well etc. Be encouraged, knowing that the God of the middle is right there with you. Keep moving forward, knowing that God is fully in control.

1 Kings 8:56 "...Not one word has failed of all the good promises He gave through His servant Moses."
