

When Moses told Pharaoh again and again to let God's enslaved people go, Pharaoh wouldn't listen. He didn't respect Moses or pay him any attention. He dismissed Moses as second class. What is significant is that after the last plague, when Pharaoh finally decided to let the Hebrew people go, instead of dismissing Moses as not good enough, Pharaoh recognized the hand of God on Moses. He saw the anointing and felt the power to where he asked Moses to bless him!

God knows how to change people. You don't need to play up to them, or try to convince them to like you, or let them control and manipulate you in order to try to win their favour. No, walk in your anointing. Run your own race, always honouring God with excellence and integrity. God will turn the hearts of those who are against you, and who disrespected you the most, to ask for your blessing. It may take years, but they are going to recognize God's favour on your life.

Exodus 12:32 ""Take your flocks and herds and be gone; and oh, give me a blessing as you go.""
