

The moment you accept that something negative is the norm, you will always struggle in your finances, your relationships / marriage will never improve, you remain stuck in your career etc. That is when a stronghold in your mind is formed that can keep you from your destiny. The first place we lose the battle is in our own thinking. Remember, the real battlefield is in the mind. If you think you have reached your limits, you have. If you think you will never get well, you won't. You need to change your thinking and stir up your faith. God is saying: "I have given you gifts, talents, and great potential. You have seeds of greatness inside you. Doors are going to open that no man or woman can shut. Talent is going to come out that you didn't know you had. I am going to connect you with the right people, and present you with opportunities that will thrust you into a new level of your destiny."

Dream big. Believe big. Pray big. Make room for God to do something new in your life. He has explosive blessings coming your way.

Revelation 3:8 "Behold, I have set before you an open door, which no-one is able to shut."
