

It is significant that the psalmist didn't just say: "I'm going to stay in the shelter of the Most High, and that will keep me protected." He says: "I will say of the Lord." What you are saying is going to make a difference whether you see God's protection and favour like you should. You cannot go around talking defeat, because negative talk is like bait. It attracts the enemy. It opens the door to difficulties, so you need to stop such talk.

You need to start declaring that you are protected, and thank God that there is a hedge around you. The way you activate God's protection is by declaring faith-filled words. Say as David did in Psalm 27: "The Lord is my light and my salvation. Whom shall I fear? The Lord protects me from danger. Why should I be afraid? Though an army surrounds me, I will remain confident. For in the time of trouble, God will hide me. He will place me out of reach, high on a rock." Say what God says about you.

Psalm 91:1-2 "Whoever dwells in the shelter of the Most High will rest in the shadow of the Almighty. I will say of the LORD, "He is my refuge and my fortress, my God, in whom I trust.""
