

As a believer, you need to learn to see what God sees by fixing your eyes on Jesus. You need to understand that what you see, or how others see you, is not as important as how God sees you. Many people think that God sees them in their sins and is just waiting to pounce on them to punish them. This wrong belief produces wrong living. If you see God this way, you cannot help but be in constant fear, insecurity, and anxiety over your past sins. Turn your eyes to Jesus, for He has already made you, a believer, righteous with His blood which He shed at the Cross!

In fact, the more you behold Jesus, the more you are transformed "...from glory to glory, just as by the Spirit of the Lord". (2 Corinthians 3:18) Fixing your eyes on Jesus is the greatest holiness. Many think they need to do more in order to be more holy, accepted, and loved by God. The truth is, when you behold Jesus more and see His love, His forgiveness, His abundant grace, His mercy, and His gift of righteousness purchased for you with His own blood, you will be transformed supernaturally.

Holiness is a by-product of seeing Jesus in His grace and mercy. When you see Jesus and receive His love, grace and mercy every day, your heart is transformed inwardly. This is not outward behaviour modification. This is real change that is sustained by a heart touched by His grace and mercy, and by an emancipated conscience that is forever freed from guilt. This is when that addiction begins to drop from your life. This is when that fear begins to dissolve in His perfect love, and that condemnation arising from your past mistakes is cleansed by His precious blood.

2 Corinthians 3:18 "But we all, with unveiled face, beholding as in a mirror the glory of the Lord, are being transformed into the same image from glory to glory, just as by the Spirit of the Lord."
