

How many times have you 'buried' things alive? You tried, but the door to your dream didn't open, and now you are convinced it is dead. You bury relationships. "My marriage / relationship is over. We don't get along." You bury God's promises. "I will never get well." "I will never break the addiction." At one time you believed, but now you don't see any signs of life, so you buried it. However, the good news is that God is going to wake up some things you thought were dead.

Those dreams you have buried, need to be dug up again. Start believing again. Circumstances may say: "You will never get well.", but when you say: "Father, thank You that You are restoring health to me", you are shovelling the dirt off. When negative thoughts tell you: "You have gone as far as you can", turn it around and say: "Father, You say my latter days will be greater than my former days." That is how you remove the dirt, and you will see a dream that you have buried come to pass.

Luke 7:14-15 "Then he walked over to the coffin and touched it, and the bearers stopped. "Young man", he said, "I tell you, get up." Then the dead boy sat up and began to talk! Jesus gave him back to his mother."
