

The night before Jesus was crucified, He went to the Garden Of Gethsemane to pray. He knew the extreme suffering He would face. He felt weary, lonely, and so overcome with emotion that His sweat was like drops of blood. Remember that even though Jesus is fully God, He is fully Man. He felt everything we have felt. He felt overwhelmed. In that moment when it seemed as though He couldn't go on, God sent an angel to strengthen Him.

God knows the weight of what you are 'carrying'. He sees you being your best, and what you face on a daily basis. When you run out of strength, don't worry, for angels are coming. Help is on the way. You are going to feel strength that you didn't have, joy when you could be discouraged, hope when you should be depressed. You are going to have the power to endure, the favour to overcome, and the determination to outlast. It is not because of your own efforts; it is the angels ministering to you.

Luke 22:43 "An angel from Heaven appeared to Him and strengthened Him."
