

In John 5, when Jesus asked a disabled man: “Do you want to get well?”, he made excuses and tried to justify his condition rather than answering: “Yes, that is what I am believing for.” After 38 years of having this discouraging disability, the man had become comfortable in his dysfunction and had lost his passion to be well. However, when he heard Jesus’ call to do the impossible and rise up and walk, something rose up in him to try, and against all odds a sudden strength came into his legs, and he was instantly healed.

As with this man, God is going to ask you to do things that you don’t think you can do. In your own ability, you cannot, but when you take that step of faith, God will step in and give you supernatural ability. That is because there is favour in your calling. In your calling, you will break addictions, beat the cancer, defeat the depression etc. God is saying: “I am calling you up higher, into abundance, into freedom. I am calling you into new levels.”

John 5:8 “Jesus told him: “Stand up, pick up your mat, and walk!””
