

We weren't created to go through life overcome by problems, struggling to make it, stuck in mediocrity. God didn't create you to live defeated, burdened down by fear or addictions. He created you to reign, to be the victor and not the victim. He has already lined up moments of favour when He is going to make things happen that you couldn't possibly make happen yourself.

The Scripture says that God has crowned you with favour. That crown is symbolic of the fact that you are supposed to reign. You are crowned to defeat enemies. Crowned to take your family to a new level. Crowned to succeed, to excel, to leave your mark. Anything negative that has been reigning over you: guilt, bad breaks, dysfunction, insecurity, people trying to pull you down etc., is about to change. There is going to be a shift, a change in authority. You are about to reign over what has been reigning over you. Even now, chains are being broken. Things that have held you back are coming down. Strongholds are being broken. It is your time to be free. It is your time to step into abundance.

Psalm 103:4 "Who redeems your life from the Pit, Who crowns you with favour and compassion?"
