

What is upsetting you? What is keeping you awake at night? God already has it figured out. He knows the end from the beginning. But here is the key: He doesn't give you the details. If you knew how everything was going to work out, it wouldn't take faith. Even though you feel like you are going backwards, For example, if He told you that three months from now a big door is going to open, that there is a shortcut which is going to put you ahead, you would relax and say: "Okay, it is all going to work out."

So why don't you do that now already? God has it all planned out. He is doing things you cannot see. There are good breaks coming, healing, favour, and the right people. They are already in your diary. If you release control of what is troubling you, you can enjoy your life while you are waiting for things to change. God is saying: "Release it to me. I am in control. I am ordering your steps. I am working behind the scenes. I am going to turn it around for your good."

Isaiah 46:10 "I make known the end from the beginning, from ancient times, what is still to come. I say: "My purpose will stand, and I will do all that I please.""
