

God gave Abraham a promise of a baby son when he was 75 years old, but he was 100 before he saw the fulfillment. Abraham had all kinds of opportunities to stop believing, yet he hoped on in faith. In the face of the impossible circumstances, he stayed focused on how big God is, rather than how big the problem was.

You may feel like there is no reason to have hope in a promise of God. In the natural, it is not possible, but you serve a supernatural God. When you keep hoping on in faith, you are paving the way for God to do extraordinary things. Some promises take time. While you are waiting, it is easy to lose your passion and start believing Satan's lies that the problem is too big. You need to keep your hope stirred up. You are not moved by what is not happening. You know what God promised is on the way. You don't consider your circumstances; you consider your God. Hope on in faith.

Romans 4:18 "Against all hope, Abraham in hope believed and so became the father of many nations..."
