

When Jesus was about to be crucified, Judas came with a group of soldiers to arrest Him. When Jesus' disciples asked: "Lord, should we fight?" He told them to not resist. He was saying: "This is part of My plan. I cannot reach My destiny without this betrayal, without being unjustly tried, and without being crucified."

When we face hardships, betrayals, bad breaks, and disappointments, it seems like Satan is in control. We want to fight, resist, and get upset, but God is saying: "Don't resist anymore. Don't fight it, don't live bitter, and don't try to get even. I am still directing your steps." Don't live upset. God didn't stop what was unfair, because it is leading you to your destiny. You don't know what God is up to. You cannot see that on the other side of that 'crucifixion' is a 'resurrection'. On the other side of it all is a new level of your destiny. Stop resisting and start trusting.

Luke 22:51 "But Jesus said: "Don't resist anymore.""
