

In Jesus' first public miracle when He turned water into wine at the wedding in John 2, it would have been a great miracle even if He had just given them the same wine that had run out. We would be telling the story that God can restore, that when you run out, He can give you more.

That is good, but our God is so loving that He doesn't just give the same - He gives you the best wine. The best is simply something that you have never seen - favour, health, opportunity, finances, influence. The best is in front of you. After you see that best, then God will give you something even better - a new best. That is what it means when the Scripture says He is taking you from glory to glory. In between those glories, there may be seasons when you feel as though you have nothing more to give - no more creativity, no more resources, no more options. It needed to run out so you could see your next best. It is all a part of God's plan for your life.

2 Corinthians 9:10 "This most generous God who gives seed to the farmer that becomes bread for your meals is more than extravagant with you."
