

In Psalm 23, it ends in “the house of the Lord”. Jesus used this image in John 14:2, saying: “In My Father’s house are many mansions.... I go to prepare a place for you.”

In his book on Psalm 23, David Roper said: “It is not that Heaven is somewhat like home. It is home. Our Earthly homes are mere signs or reflections - primitive symbols of warmth, love, togetherness, and familiarity. The ultimate reality is our Father’s house, where there is a Father who never dies, who makes a home for the lonely, who treats us like family, and where real love awaits us.”

The final two chapters of the Bible give us a vivid fly-over of our Heavenly home. In Revelation 21 and 22, we read about a new planet and a vast city. Those who know Christ as their Shepherd have a future beyond belief. Make sure you are among that number. Be certain the Lord alone is your Shepherd!

Psalm 23:6 “I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.”
