

When Samuel came to the house of Jesse to anoint one of his eight sons to be the next king, Jesse didn't think David was king material. David's brothers looked down on him, and tried to make him feel less than them. But the moment Samuel saw David, he knew this was the next king.

God has already lined up people who will see your greatness, speak destiny into you, and use their influence to take you higher. But most of the time you will first encounter critics, naysayers, even family members who try to discourage you. If you are going to see Samuel, you need to become deaf to all the negative voices that try to discourage you, to get you to give up on your hopes and dreams, to live below your potential. Don't fall into that trap. Start tuning out all the lies that diminish you and make you feel less-than, not valuable, and not worthy. Tune in to what God says about you. He says you are His masterpiece, crowned with favour, gifted, and talented. You have everything you need to fulfill your pre-ordained destiny in Christ.

1 Samuel 16:12 "The LORD said to Samuel: "This is the one - anoint him!""
