

In this life we all go through things that are unfair - people do us wrong, the company let us go, we came down with an illness etc. It is easy to live with a victim mentality, thinking we are at a disadvantage, we were shortchanged, we cannot do anything great. We cannot love again because the last person hurt us. We cannot be happy because we have lost too much. As long as you accept that you are a victim, you are going to get stuck. Don't use what you have been through as an excuse to feel sorry for yourself, to limit you, and to not pursue your dreams.

Nothing that has happened to you has stopped your destiny. When someone did you wrong and walked away, it may have been painful, but they didn't ruin your life. They don't have that much power. With His strong right arm, God will work out His plan for you. Now do your part and be the victor.

Isaiah 59:1 "Listen! The LORD's arm is not too weak to save you, nor is His ear too deaf to hear you call."
