

For most of us, our life contains broken pieces. Life is a 'battlefield'. Paul told Timothy to "wage the good warfare". (1 Timothy 1:18) None of us escape without incurring some wounds, but God can use these to bring glory to Himself. He takes the fragments of pain, the scraps of sadness, the chunks of disappointment. In His hands, these can become the means by which we learn to trust Him and to comfort others.

Give the broken pieces of your life to the Lord. He can make all things work together for your good and His glory. He does all things well, and makes everything beautiful in His time.

Ecclesiastes 3:11 "He has made everything beautiful in its time."
