

When King Ahaziah of Judah was killed, his mother, Athaliah, decided to take the throne as queen. She killed the whole royal family of the house of Judah, except for Ahaziah's baby son, Joash, who was hidden by his aunt in the temple. When Joash was seven years old, Jehoiada, the high priest, gathered the military commanders and heads of Israelite families, declared that it was time for the king's son to reign, and overthrew Athaliah. God's promise to David was secured.

What God started in your life, He is going to finish. People cannot stop it. Bad breaks cannot keep it from happening. It is time for the King's children to reign. Whatever negative thing has been reigning over you is about to end. This is a new day. You are coming into destiny moments. God is about to take you where you cannot go on your own. It is going to be unusual, it is not going to happen according to a normal timetable, and it is going to be sooner than you think. It is your time to reign.

2 Chronicles 23:3 "...Here is the king's son! The time has come for him to reign! The LORD has promised that a descendant of David will be our king."
