

Where was Jesus on the day He died? He was in the centre between two thieves. He was in the centre of humanity, in the centre of history, and especially in the centre of the story of redemption. Where is He in your life? Are you Christ-centred?

A Christian author, Paul Tripp, wrote: "A Christ-centred life begins with realizing that the source of everything we are is the Lord. He created us, He owns us, He gifted us." Our Lord doesn't simply want to be included in our lives; He wants to be the axis, the nucleus, the hub around which our entire life revolves. When we keep Him at the centre, He takes everything we have and makes it meaningful. But when we push Him to the side, we are unable to enjoy His gifts.

The Living Bible says in 1 Corinthians 1:24: "God has opened the eyes of those called to salvation, both Jews and Gentiles, to see that Christ is the mighty power of God to save them; Christ Himself is the centre of God's wise plan for their salvation." Is He at the dead centre of your heart?

John 19:18 "Jesus in the centre."
