

Do you ever ask yourself: “How much more can I take?” Not everybody learns the procedure for leaning on Jesus during difficult, challenging times. We will always need to do things we don’t want to do; we all experience things we would like to avoid. But this is part of what teaches us humility. It causes us to realize we are not in control, nor are we above the circumstances of life. We aren’t in Heaven / Paradise yet, but God has His proper times and procedures that allow us to trust Him.

Notice the relationship between humility and faith in 1 Peter 5:6-7: “Therefore humble yourselves under the mighty hand of God, that He may exalt you in due time, casting all your care upon Him, for He cares for you.” When faced with difficult situations that you cannot avoid, obey God in humility and rely on Him to guide you.

Ecclesiastes 8:6 “For there is a proper time and procedure for every matter, though a person may be weighed down by misery.”
