

Before He ascended to Heaven, Jesus communicated to His apostles the importance of their main job, namely the Great Commission, which was to spread the Gospel to the ends of the Earth, and make disciples of all nations. (Matthew 28:19-20; Acts 1:8) Yes, that job has many dimensions, just as Jesus' Earthly ministry was multifaceted: teaching, preaching, caring for the needy, influencing society, and more. But the main focus - the umbrella that covers all those exercises - is spreading the Gospel to all the world. Why? Because the whole world is under the influence of Satan (1 John 5:19), and because a day is coming very soon when the Antichrist will seek to dominate the world. (Revelation 13:3)

So always remain mindful of your main job as a follower of Christ: the Great Commission - to spread the Gospel to all the world.

Acts 1:8 "But you shall receive power when the Holy Spirit has come upon you; and you shall be witnesses to Me in Jerusalem, and in all Judea and Samaria, and to the end of the Earth."
