

Is God sufficient for your needs? The builders of the Tabernacle in Exodus 36:7 found that the “material they had was sufficient for the work to be done - indeed too much.” The apostle Paul said: “Our sufficiency is from God.” (2 Corinthians 3:5) He trusted God for “sufficient courage” to face his trials (Philippians 1:20), and the Lord told him: “My grace is sufficient for you.” (2 Corinthians 12:9)

Your Saviour is sufficient for you each and every day. Whatever the struggle, whatever the burden, His grace is enough. His power is sufficient for your weakness, His provision is sufficient for your need, and His joy is sufficient for your soul.

Jesus comes to us in the midst of our struggles. He speaks to us of peace, and bestows upon us encouragement and strength. He gives a promise for every problem. Thank Him each day for giving you all you need, and for being all you need.

2 Corinthians 9:8 “God is able to make all grace abound toward you, that you, always having all sufficiency in all things, may have an abundance of every good work.”
