

A masterpiece never makes itself. Without da Vinci, there is no Mona Lisa painting - just another painted canvas, no big deal. Without Michelangelo, there is no statue of David - just another big slab of marble that others thought was nothing special. The difference was the maker. The good news is that your Maker is the Most High God. It is not up to you to become a masterpiece; that is His job. You don't need to strive, perform, and live under pressure. You can relax, knowing that you are a masterpiece in the making.

Like everyone, you have some flaws, some areas where you need to improve. Remember, you are not finished. The Master is still at work. Don't get discouraged while you are being changed. Your divine Designer knows exactly what you need, when you need it, and where you need it. What looks like a mistake or a flaw to us is not to Him. When He has added some more strokes, more colour, more definition, more shadowing, it begins to make sense. When it all comes together, you will become the masterpiece God created you to be.

Ephesians 2:10 "For we are God's masterpieces. He has created us anew in Christ Jesus, so we can do the good things He planned for us long ago."
