

We all face times when life is so overwhelming that we feel we are at the breaking point. We may be dealing with an illness, a relationship that is falling apart, or a setback to our business. We have done the right thing, worked hard, but the situation gets worse, and we don't think we can take any more. It is not that we don't have faith; it is battle fatigue.

God sees what you are going through, and He knows when it is too much. The Scripture says: "God is a very present help in times of trouble." He will send angels to strengthen you, to encourage you, and to help lighten that load. They are messengers that God uses to carry out His will, to fight our battles, to push back forces of darkness, and to refresh and reenergize us. Be encouraged that God has already dispatched angels with healing in their wings - with strength, with favour, with fresh vision, and with victory. You are going to feel a supernatural power lifting that load, and a new attitude giving you a second wind so that you can step up and fulfill your purpose.

Hebrews 1:14 "Are not all angels ministering spirits sent to serve those who will inherit salvation?"