

In the Garden of Gethsemane, just a few hours before He was arrested and taken to be crucified, Jesus was under such pressure and anguish that His sweat became like great drops of blood. He was praying: "Father, I am at My breaking point. If it is possible, take this cup from Me." But the Father was silent. At that point, an angel appeared and strengthened Him. Jesus had been deeply troubled and under great sorrow, but He became empowered with supernatural grace and peace to face the Cross. He received everything He needed to finish His purpose.

You will never face what He did, but whenever you feel overwhelmed with pressure, you can know that God will send angels. All the forces of darkness cannot stop what God has purposed for your life. You may be in a dark hour, and you don't see how you can face what is in front of you. God has already dispatched the angels. He is about to breathe strength, power and endurance into your soul and spirit. You are going to come out, not the same, but in the power of the Holy Spirit.

Luke 22:43-44 "An angel from Heaven appeared to Him and strengthened Him, and being in anguish, He prayed more earnestly, and His sweat was like drops of blood falling to the ground."
