

Stuck in the wilderness for 40 years because of their disobedience, the Israelites complained over and over that nothing good was happening, and they hadn't seen the miracle of entering into the abundance of the Promised Land. Yet their clothes and sandals never wore out. There were no grocery stores, yet they never missed a meal. They weren't trained in warfare, yet they defeated armies. They didn't realize they were in the middle of a miracle. God was sustaining them, protecting them, and not letting enemies defeat them.

Perhaps you have been praying and believing, but your child hasn't turned around, your business hasn't taken off, you are still struggling financially etc. God hasn't delivered you from it, but He is taking you through a desert season, sustaining you right now, holding back what should defeat you. You thought you would have your answer by now, but have you noticed that your shoes haven't worn out, that there has been provision, that there has been protection? There is a miracle taking place, but you cannot always see it. Trust His timing, trust His ways. It is on the way.

Deuteronomy 29:5 "Yet the LORD says: 'During the forty years that I led you through the wilderness, your clothes did not wear out, nor did the sandals on your feet.'"
