

When someone breaks a promise, it deeply erodes our faith in the trustworthiness of that person. We don't have to worry about that with Jesus. He said: "Heaven and Earth will pass away, but My words will by no means pass away." (Matthew 24:35) He spoke those words on the Mount Of Olives during His message about the Last Days in Matthew 24. Jesus gave us a staggering example when He said about Herod's temple in Jerusalem: "Assuredly, I say to you, not one stone shall be left here upon another." (verse 2) In A.D. 70, Jerusalem was destroyed, and the temple demolished. The rubble is still visible today.

Jesus speaks with integrity. He loves you, and will keep all His promises to you - including His precious promise to return very soon at the Rapture, and call you up to be with Him in the clouds, and then take you to Heaven / Paradise. Rest in that today, and every day!

2 Peter 3:9 "The Lord is not slack concerning His promise."
