

In Luke 5, when Peter obeyed Jesus' word to let down his nets, even though he had fished all night and caught nothing, his nets began to break from the large number of fish in them. Realizing who Jesus was, and the miracle that had happened, Peter fell at Jesus' knees in worship. Even though the catch was very valuable and could have been Peter's focus, Peter showed by his actions that he was more interested in Jesus than success. He recognized that the source of all good things was in his boat, and that the goal was not the fish, but to fulfill his purpose as a servant of the Most High God.

God has exactly what you need for each season of your life. If you keep God first place, He will add everything you need. The psalmist says: "Those who seek the Lord lack no good thing." (Psalm 34:10) The key is to not seek the blessing, but seek the Blesser. Keep Him first place, seek His Kingdom and His righteousness, and the blessings you need will seek you. It will be more than you have imagined.

Matthew 6:33 "But seek first His Kingdom and His righteousness, and all these things will be given to you as well."
