

Mountains represent problems that look permanent, immovable. It might be a mountain of depression, insecurity, addiction, lack, or anxiety. It looks as though it will never change, but there is no mountain God cannot melt, and He can melt it to the point that there is no more sign of it. It may not have happened yet, but this is a new day. God is doing a new thing. He will not allow any obstacle to keep you from your destiny. What God put in your heart will still come to pass. The dreams He has given you will still be completed.

Now do your part and start declaring God's favour and power. Start declaring His promises, speaking what He says about you: "I can do all things through Christ. There is nothing too difficult for my God." Start thanking God that it is going to happen. As you keep God's Word in your heart, God promises it will prevail - not the sickness, not the trouble, not the fear. He will melt the obstacle that is set to defeat you. You will be victorious!

Psalms 97:5 "The mountains melt like wax before the LORD, before the Lord of all the Earth."
