

We all go through disappointments, and difficulties we didn't see coming. It is easy to accept it and think that it is the way it is always going to be. We went through a breakup, so we will always be lonely. We had a setback in our business, so we will always struggle. We came down with an illness, so we will always have to deal with it. The enemy will whisper: "This will never change. You won't get out of this."

No! God says that when we go through challenges or loss, we are still going to come out with nothing missing. He is a God of restoration. You may have lost your health, lost your joy, or lost a position, but that is not how your story ends. Don't judge your situation too soon. God sees everything you have lost. He hasn't forgotten about you. The loss is only temporary. It is just a season. You are going to get it all back. Your health is coming back, your confidence is coming back, your child is coming back, your strength is coming back, your finances are coming back etc. When God gets finished restoring, nothing will be missing, large or small.

Jeremiah 30:17 "But I will restore you to health and heal your wounds', declares the LORD."
