

Many of us take time to step into the great outdoors to enjoy God's Creation. Some take hikes up mountain pathways, while others will walk to the top of gushing waterfalls. But even a walk down the street or through a park - if we will only focus - shows us lilies, daisies, billowing clouds, chirping birds, and calming breezes.

Psalm 125:2 says: "As the mountains surround Jerusalem, so the Lord surrounds His people from this time forth and forever." Psalm 148 says: "Mountains and all hills; fruitful trees and all cedars.... Let them praise the Name of the Lord, for His Name alone is exalted; His glory is above the Earth and Heaven." (verses 9, 13)

Romans 1:20 tells us that God's invisible power and glorious attributes can be seen in what He has created. Take time to enjoy the birds, flowers, stars, leaves, plants, hills, and streams He has made. Praise Him and know that if He cares for His great outdoors, He will also care for you.

Matthew 6:28 "Consider the lilies of the field, how they grow."
