

After experiencing a great victory over the prophets of Baal, calling down fire from Heaven, the prophet Elijah was so exhausted that he ran into the desert at the threat of Queen Jezebel. He was at the breaking point, totally having lost perspective, and didn't want to live anymore. But notice how good God is. He sent an angel to not only bring food to Elijah, but to cook it - not once, but twice. That food gave him the strength to make a forty-day journey to meet with God. His whole attitude and perspective changed. He came out of the desert with a new passion, more energy, ready for the next season of his life.

God has these times prepared when He is going to cook the food for you. You are tired - battle weary. You have lost perspective. However, God has angels preparing whatever it is that you need. You are not going to have to go after it; it is going to come to you - the strength, the encouragement, the provision, the right people. Get ready! God is not going to let you miss your destiny.

1 Kings 19:5-6 "Then as he lay and slept under a broom tree, suddenly an angel touched him, and said to him: 'Arise and eat.' Then he looked, and there by his head was a cake baked on coals, and a jar of water. So he ate and drank, and lay down again."
