

All of us have spiritual blind spots due to lack of teaching or due to our presuppositions. We need to be humble, and ask God to show us what is correct.

Job was a man who had blind spots about God. He had four friends who attempted to enlighten him with some views that were correct, and some that were incorrect. But Job was not receptive. He thought what he knew about God was accurate, until God revealed Himself. Job was forced to repent and change his beliefs and actions. (Job 38–42) He had to acknowledge that God was bigger and more majestic than he had ever realized.

Make room in your understanding for God to reveal Himself in ways that you do not expect. Allow Him to expand your knowledge and experience in amazing ways.

Job 37:14,23 “Listen to this, Job; stop and consider God’s wonders....The Almighty is beyond our reach and exalted in power.”
