

Christ suffered 5 wounds when He was crucified - His hands, feet, and side. Theologians and artists have long pondered the five wounds of Christ. But the precious blood of Jesus flowed from more than five wounds. Think of the puncture wounds from the crown of thorns, and His shredded back tortured by the scourge.

Our minds are too finite, our souls are too limited, and our imaginations are too small to fully comprehend the love Jesus showed us on the Cross. Perhaps we will not be able to grasp all the ramifications of His death even in Heaven, for it is bound up in the infinite mystery of the grace of God.

But we can say: "Thank You Jesus! Bless You Jesus!"

Revelation 1:5-6 "To Him who loved us and washed us from our sins in His own blood... to Him be glory and dominion forever and ever. Amen."
