

In Ephesians 4, Paul tells us the Church is a group of believers, each with their own gifts and role to play, and we must follow the direction of Jesus. Some are apostles, missionaries who are sent to plant churches. Some are prophets, taking the Word of God and exhorting. Some are evangelists with a gift of leading others to Christ. Others are pastors who shepherd the flock, and teachers who feed the flock.

The end result? We will be built up with unity and maturity. Take your place, and remember when each of us follows Christ's lead, our churches will not be a collection of noise, but rather a symphony of grace sounding forth the truth.

Ephesians 4:11 "He Himself gave some to be apostles, some prophets, some evangelists, and some pastors and teachers."
